

- Independence Square
- Benjamin Franklin's Philadelphia
- Streets & Stories of Old Philadelphia
- Museum of the American Revolution
- My Philadelphia Revolution Report

Name:

Date:

Independence Square

Independence Hall • Congress Hall • Liberty Bell

1. What two important documents were signed at Independence Hall?

---

---

---

2. Congress Hall was home to the House and Senate. What did these groups do?

---

---

---

3. Why do you think the Liberty Bell has become a symbol of freedom?

---

---

---

Benjamin Franklin's Philadelphia

Remember three important stops from our walking tour.

1. Benjamin Franklin's grave: What did you notice at his resting place?

---

---

---

2. The printing press: How were books and newspapers printed long ago?

---

---

---

3. Franklin Court: What did you learn about Franklin's home and life?

---

---

---

Historic Philadelphia: Streets & Stories

Think about the people who lived and worked in this city.

---

1. Betsy Ross House: What did you learn about Betsy Ross?

---

---

---

2. Elfreth's Alley: What might life on this street have been like in the 1700s?

---

---

---

3. Carpenters' Hall: Why was this building important to colonial leaders?

---

---

---

Little Details, Big History

A few more memories from our historic walking tour.

1. At the firehouse, what made the Benjamin Franklin statue so unusual?

---

---

2. Sketch a building, cobblestone street, or historical detail you remember.

3. What was your favorite part of the walking tour, and why?

---

---

Museum of the American Revolution

Use your memory of the exhibits, stories and objects you saw.

1. What did you learn about the daily lives of Revolutionary War soldiers?

---

---

2. What object or story helped you understand the challenges of the war?

---

---

3. Whose story or perspective stayed with you? What made it memorable?

---

---

Draw one artifact or museum moment that you remember.

Washington's Headquarters Tent

A remarkable artifact from the Museum of the American Revolution.

1. What surprised you most about seeing George Washington's actual tent?

---

---

---

2. Why do you think Washington needed a tent while leading the army?

---

---

---

Draw the tent, or a detail of it you want to remember.

My Philadelphia Revolution Report

What will you remember most about this field trip?

---

My favorite place or discovery was...

---

---

Three things I learned (write one on each line):

---

---

---

One thing that surprised me, or a question I still have:

---

---

Draw something you want to remember from Philadelphia.

